Essay Question to Answer:

A Spiritual Biography

-How did you hear about this program?

-What do you feel has led you to this spiritual path?

-Have you experienced an initiation crisis or healing crisis on the way to finding this form of healing? (Continued on next page...)

- What about core shamanic healing is of interest to you?
- What specifically do you hope to get out of this program of experiential study?
- What goals do you have for yourself on this path of learning?
- If you faced a challenge or internal resistance to healing in this program, how would you respond to it? Do you anticipate any challenges for yourself? If so, what are they?
- How would you use what you would learn and experience in this program to help yourself and others?

You are not limited to only respond to the above questions. Please feel free to share any additional relevant information about your journey that you feel is important, such as any other healing or learning experiences with alternative or shamanic healing and how it helped you or simply why this type of healing calls to you at this time.*

...Applying for a scholarship as well?

There are two NEED-BASED scholarships available
exclusively for members of the BIPOC Community**

If you are also applying for one of the scholarships, please also include the following information in your application:

- How did you hear about this scholarship?
- Would you commit to attending all 10 classes? If not, what challenges would prevent your attendance?
- Why do you need this scholarship? Please describe any financial situation(s) currently preventing you from having access to this program otherwise.
- Is there anything else that I should know or that you would like to add?

Thank you very much for submitting your application!
